BIO

As guitarist for Aftershock, Tall Girl, the Blast Big Band, and more, Tim Fullerton's experience encompasses an eclectic variety of music covering Rock, Pop, Funk, Blues, Jazz, Fusion, and musical theater. Also as a respected solo and session guitarist, Tim has performed at venues such as Café Lily, The Bernardo Winery, and The Ranch House at Del Sur. He has also participated in musical theater productions of Heathers, Footloose, and Godspell. Tim is now on recording projects with Tall Girl and Aftershock, and he is recording solo repertoire.

He has offered outreach programs at La Jolla Country Day school; Lifetime Montessori; the Escondido Senior Center; The Springs, Escondido; Wesley Palms; Lantern Crest; and the VA Hospital, La Jolla.

His career includes fifteen years of private and group teaching experience in his private studio, as well as The Ohio State University, The Columbus Music Center, Lang Music, and Coyle Music.

Tim is currently pursuing his Master of Music in Jazz Guitar Performance at San Diego State University. He has a Bachelor of Music from The Ohio State University, with an emphasis in Jazz Composition. His training also includes study at Berklee College of Music and Musicians Institute.
