

TIM FULLERTON

info@timfullertonguitar.com • 858.243.2688 • www.timfullertonguitar.com • facebook.com/TimFullertonGuitar

BIO

As guitarist for Aftershock, Tall Girl, the Blast Big Band, and more, Tim Fullerton's experience encompasses an eclectic variety of music covering rock, pop, funk, blues, jazz, fusion, and musical theater. As a respected solo and session guitarist, Tim has performed at San Diego venues such as Black Rail Kitchen, The Bernardo Winery, The Landings at Carlsbad, The Kraken, and The Roxy. Highlights from his musical theater resume include Mamma Mia at the Welk Resort, Avenue Q at New Village Arts, Heathers and Xanadu at OnStage Playhouse, and Jesus Christ Superstar at Star Theater.

He has offered outreach programs at La Jolla Country Day school; Lifetime Montessori; the Escondido Senior Center; The Springs, Escondido; Wesley Palms; Lantern Crest; and the VA Hospital, La Jolla.

His career includes fifteen years of private and group teaching experience in his private studio, as well as The Ohio State University, The Columbus Music Center, Lang Music, and Coyle Music.

Tim is currently studying at USC's Thornton School of Music, has a Master of Music from San Diego State University, and a Bachelor of Music from The Ohio State University. His formal training also includes study at Berklee College of Music and Musicians Institute.